ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

v.

Lorenzo Maurice Bates

Case No. 1:13 CR 96

Defendant

After conducting a detention hearing under the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), I conclude that these facts require that the defendant be detained pending trial.

Part I – Findings of Fact

- ____ (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has previously been convicted of ____ a federal offense ____ a state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if federal jurisdiction had existed – that is
- ____ a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4), or an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2332b(g)(5)(B) for which the prison term is 10 years or more.
- ____ an offense for which the maximum sentence is death or life imprisonment.
- ____ an offense for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in: _____.*
- ____ a felony committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.
- ____ any felony that is not a crime of violence but involves:
- ____ a minor victim
- ____ the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon
- ____ a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250
- ____ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.
- ____ (3) A period of less than 5 years has elapsed since the ____ date of conviction ____ defendant's release from prison for the offense described in finding (1).
- ____ (4) Findings (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition will reasonably assure the safety of another person or the community. I further find that defendant has not rebutted that presumption.

Alternative Findings (A)

- ✓ (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense
- ____ for which a maximum prison term of ten years or more is prescribed in:
- ____ Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 801 et seq.).*
- ✓ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).
- ____ (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding (1) that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance and the safety of the community.

Alternative Findings (B)

- ____ (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
- ✓ (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

Part II – Statement of the Reasons for Detention

I find that the testimony and information submitted at the detention hearing establishes by ✓ clear and convincing evidence ____ a preponderance of the evidence that:

defendant is a 35-year-old man with no substantial work history. He has no stable residence, but proposes to live with his girlfriend and her children. He has a felony criminal record beginning with a conviction at age 12. Consequently, he has spent most of his life in prison or jail. His adult felony convictions are for armed robbery, fleeing and eluding, delivery or possession of both cocaine and marijuana, and receiving and concealing stolen property. He has committed new felonies while on bond and on parole. His institutional record in both prison and jail is poor, resulting in numerous misconduct citations. The present charges arise from an armed robbery of drugs and subsequent flight from police. Defendant is clearly incorrigible and unwilling or unable to conform his conduct to the requirements of law or supervision orders.

Part III – Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.
